SECTION 9101. Nonstatutory provisions; Administration.

(1) TRANSFER OF OFFICE OF JUSTICE ASSISTANCE.

(a) Assets and liabilities. On the effective date of this paragraph, the assets and liabilities of the office of justice assistance, except those that are primarily related to administering federal homeland security moneys, or to reintegrating American Indians who have been incarcerated, as determined by the department of administration become the assets and liabilities of the department of justice. On the effective date of this paragraph, the assets and liabilities of the office of justice assistance that are primarily related to administering federal homeland security moneys, and not related to interoperable communications, as determined by the department of administration, become the assets and liabilities of the department of military affairs. On the effective date of this paragraph, the assets and liabilities of the office of justice assistance that are primarily related to the reintegration of American Indians who have been incarcerated, as determined by the department of administration, become the assets and liabilities of the department of corrections.

(b) Employee transfers. On the effective date of this paragraph, the incumbents holding those positions in the department of administration performing duties that are primarily related to the office of justice assistance, except those positions performing duties that are primarily related to administering federal homeland security moneys, or to reintegrating American Indians who have been incarcerated, as determined by the department of administration, are transferred to the department of justice. On the effective date of this paragraph, the incumbents holding those positions that are primarily related to administering federal homeland security moneys, and not related to interoperable communications, as determined by the department of administration, are transferred to the department of military affairs. On the effective date of this paragraph, the incumbents holding those positions that are primarily related to reintegrating American Indians who have been incarcerated, as determined by the department of administration, are transferred to the department of corrections.

(c) Employee status. Employees transferred under paragraph (b) have all the rights and the same status under subchapter V of chapter 111 and chapter 230 of the statutes in the department of justice, the department of military affairs, or the department of corrections, whichever is applicable, that they enjoyed in the office of justice assistance immediately before the transfer. Notwithstanding section 230.28 (4) of the statutes, no employee so transferred who has attained permanent status in class is required to serve a probationary period.

(d) Tangible personal property. On the effective date of this paragraph, all tangible personal property, including records, of the office of justice assistance, except property that is primarily related to administering federal homeland security moneys, or property that is primarily related to reintegrating American Indians who have been incarcerated, as determined by the department of administration, is transferred to the department of justice. On the effective date of this paragraph, all tangible personal property, including records, of the office of justice assistance that is primarily related to administering federal homeland security moneys, and not related to interoperable communications, as determined by the department of administration, is transferred to the department of military affairs. On the effective date of this paragraph, all tangible personal property, including records, of the office of justice assistance that is primarily related to reintegrating American Indians who have been incarcerated, as determined by the department of administration, is transferred to the department of corrections.

(e) Contracts.

1. All contracts entered into by the office of justice assistance in effect on the effective date of this subdivision, except contracts that are primarily related to administering federal homeland security moneys, or are primarily related to reintegrating American Indians who have been incarcerated, as determined by the department of administration, remain in effect and are transferred to the department of justice. The department of justice shall carry out any such contractual obligations unless modified or rescinded by the department of justice to the extent allowed under the contract.

2. All contracts entered into by the office of justice assistance in effect on the effective date of this subdivision that are primarily related to administering federal homeland security moneys, and not related to interoperable communications, as determined by the department of administration, remain in effect and are transferred to the department of military affairs. The department of military affairs shall carry out any such contractual obligations unless modified or rescinded by the department of military affairs to the extent allowed under the contract.

3. All contracts entered into by the office of justice assistance in effect on the effective date of this subdivision that are primarily related to reintegrating American Indians who have been incarcerated, as determined by the department of administration, remain in effect and are transferred to the department of corrections. The department of corrections shall carry out any such contractual obligations unless modified or rescinded by the department of corrections to the extent allowed under the contract.

(f) Pending matters. Any matter pending with the office of justice assistance on the effective date of this paragraph, except matters that are primarily related to administering federal homeland security moneys, or to reintegrating American Indians who have been incarcerated, as determined by the department of administration, is transferred to the department of justice, and all materials submitted to or actions taken by the office of justice assistance with respect to the pending matter are considered as having been submitted to or taken by the department of justice. Any matter pending with the office of justice assistance on the effective date of this paragraph that is primarily related to administering federal homeland security moneys, and not related to interoperable communications, as determined by the department of administration, is transferred to the department of military affairs, and all materials submitted to or actions taken by the office of justice assistance with respect to the pending matter are considered as having been submitted to or taken by the department of military affairs. Any matter pending with the office of justice assistance on the effective date of this paragraph that is primarily related to reintegrating American Indians who have been incarcerated, as determined by the department of administration, is transferred to the department of corrections, and all materials submitted to or actions taken by the office of justice assistance with respect to the pending matter are considered as having been submitted to or taken by the department of corrections.

(g) Rules and orders.

1. All rules promulgated for the office of justice assistance, except rules that are primarily related to administering federal homeland security moneys, or to reintegrating American Indians who have been incarcerated, as determined by the department of administration, that are in effect on the effective date of this subdivision remain in effect until their specified expiration dates or until amended or repealed by the department of justice. All orders issued by the office of justice assistance, except orders that are primarily related to administering federal homeland security moneys, or to reintegrating American Indians who have been incarcerated, as determined by the department of administration, that are in effect on the effective date of this subdivision remain in effect until their specified expiration dates or until modified or rescinded by the department of justice.

2. All rules promulgated for the office of justice assistance that are primarily related to administering federal homeland security moneys, and not related to interoperable communications, as determined by the department of administration, and that are in effect on the effective date of this subdivision remain in effect until their specified expiration dates or until amended or repealed by the department of military affairs. All orders issued by the office of justice assistance that are primarily related to administering federal homeland security moneys, and not related to interoperable communications, as determined by the department of administration, and that are in effect on the effective date of this subdivision remain in effect until their specified expiration dates or until modified or rescinded by the department of military affairs.

3. All rules promulgated for the office of justice assistance that are primarily related to reintegrating American Indians who have been incarcerated, as determined by the department of administration, and that are in effect on the effective date of this subdivision remain in effect until their specified expiration dates or until amended or repealed by the department of corrections. All orders issued by the office of justice assistance that are primarily related to reintegrating American Indians who have been incarcerated, as determined by the department of administration, and that are in effect on the effective date of this subdivision remain in effect until their specified expiration dates or until modified or rescinded by the department of corrections.

(2i) MACKENZIE ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION CENTER. The department of administration shall conduct a thorough review of the existing status and condition of the buildings, structures, and animal enclosures at the MacKenzie Environmental Education Center. The study shall include a description of the maintenance and repairs that are necessary for the buildings, structures, and animal enclosures with an estimate of the costs of doing the maintenance and repairs. After completing the study, the department of administration shall prepare a report detailing the findings of the study and shall submit the report to the joint committee on finance on a date that is no later than 90 days after the date the study is completed or on June 1, 2014, whichever is earlier.

(3c) 2013–15 EXECUTIVE BRANCH STATE AGENCY POSITION REDUCTIONS.

(a) In this subsection, “state agency” means an office, commission, department, independent agency, or board in the executive branch of state government.

(b) During the 2013–15 fiscal biennium, the secretary of administration shall eliminate 450.0 FTE positions in state agencies. No later than January 1, 2015, the secretary of administration shall submit a report to the joint committee on finance identifying the positions by state agency and by the appropriation account from which the positions are funded.

(3L) STUDY OF PUBLIC LIBRARY SYSTEMS.

(a) The department of administration, in consultation with the department of public instruction, shall conduct a study of public library systems in this state to identify the potential for savings by doing the following:

1. Consolidating systems.
2. Increasing the use of technology.
3. Reducing duplications and inefficiencies.
4. Utilizing lean production principles.
5. Increasing the sharing of services among library systems.

(b) By July 1, 2014, the department of administration shall submit a report of the study under paragraph (a) to the cochairpersons of the joint committee on finance.

(3s) STUDY CONCERNING CONSOLIDATION OF THE DEPARTMENTS OF SAFETY AND PROFESSIONAL SERVICES AND AGRICULTURE, TRADE AND CONSUMER PROTECTION.

(a) The department of administration shall conduct a study concerning the consolidation of the functions currently being performed by the departments of safety and professional services and agriculture, trade and consumer protection under a single new agency in the executive branch of state government, to be named the department of agriculture, regulation, and trade.

(b) In conducting the study under paragraph (a), the department of administration shall consult with the departments of safety and professional services and agriculture, trade and consumer protection and with the boards and councils attached to or under those agencies.

(c) In conducting the study under paragraph (a), the department of administration shall consult members of the public who may be affected by the consolidation of the departments of safety and professional services and agriculture, trade and consumer protection and the creation of the department of agriculture, regulation, and trade.

(d) No later than January 1, 2014, the department of administration shall submit a report of its findings from the study conducted under paragraph (a) to the joint committee on finance and, in the manner provided under section 13.172 (3) of the statutes, to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature. That report shall set forth the department of administration's recommendations concerning the proposed consolidation described under paragraph (a). If the department recommends consolidation, the report shall include the department's recommendations concerning all of the following:

1. The organizational structure, programmatic functions, and performance objectives of the department of agriculture, regulation, and trade.
2. Any reduction in staff that may be accomplished as a result of the consolidation of the departments of safety and professional services and agriculture, trade and consumer protection.

3. Any board or council that may be eliminated as a result of the consolidation of the departments of safety and professional services and agriculture, trade and consumer protection.

4. Any adjustment to credentialing fees that may be appropriate and the capability of revenue from credentialing fees to support the operations of the department of agriculture, regulation, and trade.

5. Any function of or program under the departments of safety and professional services and agriculture, trade and consumer protection that should be transferred to an agency other than the newly created department of agriculture, regulation, and trade.

6. Any way to improve the services to be provided by the department of agriculture, regulation, and trade.

(e) If the department of administration recommends consolidation in its report under paragraph (d), the department shall also submit with that report draft legislation that implements, effective July 1, 2015, the department's recommendations made in the report.

(3u) POSITION ELIMINATION REPORT. (a) Not later than January 1, 2014, the department of administration shall submit a report to the cochairpersons of the joint committee on finance that identifies the funding source for, and recommends the appropriation to be decreased with regard to, each of the following FTE positions to be eliminated in the department of natural resources:

1. 7.8 GPR positions.
2. 9.1 FED positions.
3. 4.0 PR positions.
4. 11.2 SEG positions.

(b) If the cochairpersons of the joint committee on finance do not notify the department of administration that the committee has scheduled a meeting for the purpose of reviewing the report under paragraph (a) within 14 working days after the day on which the report is submitted, the positions shall be eliminated and the appropriations shall be decreased in the manner specified in the report. If, within 14 working days after the day on which the report is submitted, the cochairpersons of the committee notify the department of administration that the committee has scheduled a meeting for the purpose of reviewing the report, no position identified in the report may be eliminated and no appropriation may be decreased with regard to that position without the approval of the committee.

(4q) ASSISTANCE TO LOCAL GOVERNMENTS FOR EFFICIENCY INITIATIVES. Under section 16.08 of the statutes, as created by this act, if a local governmental unit established a lean program before August 1, 2013, or the effective date of this subsection, whichever is later, a business that provides services to a local governmental unit for that lean program on or after August 1, 2013, or the effective date of this subsection, whichever is later, is eligible to receive a payment from the department of administration under section 16.08 (3) of the statutes, as created by this act, for the cost of the services.

SECTION 9102. Nonstatutory provisions; Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection.

(1e) GRAIN INSPECTION FUNDING.

(a) Plan. The department of agriculture, trade and consumer protection shall develop a plan to transfer, by December 31, 2013, an amount equal to the amount by which the accumulated expenses for the inspection and certification of grain under section 93.06 (1m) of the statutes have exceeded the accumulated revenues from conducting that inspection and certification as of June 30, 2013, from the unencumbered balances of program revenue appropriations to the department and of the agrichemical management and agricultural chemical cleanup funds to the appropriation account under section 20.115 (1) (h) of the statutes. The department shall submit the plan to the joint committee on finance no later than November 15, 2013.

(b) Transfer. If the cochairpersons of the joint committee on finance do not notify the department of agriculture, trade and consumer protection that the committee has scheduled a meeting for the purpose of reviewing the plan submitted under paragraph (a) within 14 working days after the day on which the plan is submitted, the department shall implement the plan. If, within 14 days after the day on which the plan is submitted, the cochairpersons of the committee notify the department that the committee has scheduled a meeting for the purpose of reviewing the plan, the department may only make a transfer to the appropriation account under section 20.115 (1) (h) upon approval by the committee.

SECTION 9103. Nonstatutory provisions; Arts Board.

SECTION 9104. Nonstatutory provisions; Building Commission.

(2) PROGRAMS PREVIOUSLY AUTHORIZED. In addition to the projects and financing authority enumerated in subsection (1), the building and financing authority enumerated in the previous state building program is continued in the 2013–15 fiscal biennium.

(3) LOANS. During the 2013–15 fiscal biennium, the building commission may make loans from general fund supported borrowing or the building trust fund to state agencies, as defined in section 20.001 (1) of the statutes, for projects that are to be
